The screenshot shows the homepage of brightdata.com. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Products, Pricing, Resources, Docs, Data for AI, EN, Contact sales, Log in, and Start Free Trial. Below the navigation, there are three trust badge reviews: Trustpilot (4.5/5), G2 (4.5/5), and Capterra (4.5/5). The main headline reads "How the world collects public web data". Below the headline, it says "Award-winning proxy networks, AI-powered web scrapers, and business-ready datasets for download. Welcome to the internet's most trusted web data platform." There are two prominent blue buttons: "Start free trial >" and "Sign up with Google". A small note below the buttons says "No credit card required". To the right of the main content area, a large red box contains the text "Step 1- Search <https://brightdata.com/>" and "on google". Another red box below it contains the text "Step2- Click on 'Start Your Free Trial'".
